EXPLAIN...

1. Read through the passage. List out the things that our society would find offensive in this passage.
2. Is Peter saying a woman with a disobedient husband should just keep quiet and tolerate the situation? What hope might she have?
3. Why do you think society puts so much emphasis on the exterior appearance of a woman? 4. How can the church fight against this unhealthy pressure?
5. Why might not God respond to a husband's prayer for a better marriage? What should he be doing even as he prays?
6. Why is peace and harmony so difficult in a marriage?
7. Define "harmony." What is necessary for harmony to exist? How does our society push against these truths today?
8. How does Peter's teaching on the relationship of a husband and wife present a marriage that can adorn the gospel?
