

What “shines” from this passage? [What impacts you or draws your attention most?]

What do you find confusing, difficult to understand or even contradictory? [explain]

What other passages shed light on this passage? [Where could you go to shed more light here?]

What can we learn about the members of the Trinity from this passage?

What does this passage say about the condition of us as fallen mankind?

From your study of this passage, what personal application can you make for your life?

