Chapter 16

1. Read the chapter three times through. List the main themes covered in this chapter.
2. What verses, phrases, or words draw your attention to the “righteousness of God” (one of the over-arching themes of the book of Romans)
3. List anything from this chapter that was confusing, seemed to contradict other passages that came to mind, or challenged your understanding.
4. What was especially comforting to you from this chapter?
5. What personally convicted or challenged you from this chapter?
6. Look at your answer to question #1. Using that list of themes, write a one sentence summary of this chapter.
7. Summarize your answer to question 6 in a few words or a short phrase. Write it in the blank on the “Thematic Timeline of Romans” on the left side of this page. [we will update these themes along the way as the texts are preached]
