

1. How can we praise God even in the midst of our enemies defeat without seeming like a jerk or feeding our bitterness?

2. How does this song rejoice in the truths about God that were made visible through the plagues and the Red Sea?

3. How have the plagues and Red Sea spoken to the other nations surrounding the Promised Land?

4. Why does Israel go so quickly from praise to grumbling? Can you remember a time when you've done this too?

5. Which elements of the redemptive story (creation, fall, redemption, restoration) are visible in this chapter?

6. How does this chapter inform the way you should view and reach out to the world around you?

7. What challenge or encouragement did this passage provide to your soul?

JEREMIAH 11

For the 52 weeks of 2018, we will be featuring one chapter per week during our music liturgy

Read the chapter and consider the following questions.

How does this passage predict/inform the exile Israel faces?

How does this chapter instruct/rebuke/encourage the faith of the Israelites?

How can this inform my thinking as an "elect exile?"
