

What is a centurion? How would he be viewed by Romans? How would he be viewed by Jews?

How do the actions and words of the centurion show respect for Jesus?

Why is it a big deal that Jesus touched the dead son? What would everyone have thought?

How does the crowd's reaction show they get it? How does the response show they don't quite get it?

Does this passage challenge, encourage, correct or teach you more about the beauty of the gospel?
