

Ecclesiastes 6:1-12

november 1, 2026

The Preacher describes a man he observed in verse 2. Can you think of anyone who fits that description (either in the Bible, or history)?

It's been said we long for honor, safety, or comfort. Which of these three do you find hardest to obtain?

God gives contentment, but that doesn't mean the Preacher is telling you to look for a divine download. How does Paul speak of finding contentment? (Philippians 4:4-13)

How is our appetite good and helpful? How can our appetite be harmful and detrimental?

This may be the darkest the Preacher gets. How does the gospel provide genuine hope and light to this passage?

How were you challenged, convicted, or comforted by this passage?
