

What a tragedy if we study this text, but don't take time to meditate on it! Let's do something a little different the next two weeks. Take your time...one question a day:

Slowly read Matthew 27:32-44 (maybe several times). What really stood out to you from the text? Why? Pray that back to God.

Slowly read Mark 15:21-32 (maybe several times). What really stood out to you from the text? Why? Pray that back to God.

Slowly read John 19:17-27 (maybe several times). What really stood out to you from the text? Why? Pray that back to God.

Slowly read Luke 23:26-43 (maybe several times). What really stood out to you from the text? Why? Pray that back to God.

What was a detail you noticed each gospel articulated? Why is it significant? Spend time talking to God about it?

What was a detail you noticed was unique to a gospel account? Why do you think that particular author chose to mention it? Pray that back to God.
