

2nd Chapter of Ruth Approaching Bethlehem 12.07.25

Was there anything confusing or felt contradictory in the passage?

What key word(s) or theme(s) keeps appearing in the passage? Does that create a particular emphasis?

What cultural issues are essential to understanding this passage? How might we, in our day/age, address these same concerns differently?

What does this passage reveal about the members of the Trinity? Do you see any typology in this passage?

Does this passage convict, challenge, comfort or cause celebration for you? Why?

If this passage came up with an unbeliever, what would you emphasize? What about with a believer?

Also see: Deuteronomy 24:19-22, Psalm 129, Matthew 1:1-2:12, Luke 2:1-21

