

3rd Chapter of Ruth

12.14.25

Approaching Bethlehem

Can you say cultural divide? Do some digging and see what you can find out what's going on!

What key word(s) or theme(s) shows up in this passage? How should that impact our reading of the Text?

What pictures of the gospel can you see in this passage? How are the characters living out a bigger story than themselves?

If this passage came up around a nonbeliever, what would you emphasize? How about a fellow believer?

How does the passage convict, comfort, challenge and/or cause you to celebrate?
