

Since Luke is the author of the gospel of Luke and the Acts, we're going to look at both accounts. Why do you think he waits to give more details in his "Volume 2 (Acts)?"

What is the disciples' attitude after Jesus ascends? Does this surprise you? Why, why not?

What were the disciples anticipating from Jesus? How does Jesus address their question?

How would you answer a person who says, "The great commission was only given directly to the apostles and does not apply to us today"?

Take a look at your calendar. How could this passage impact tomorrow? Next week? The rest of the year?

How does this passage challenge, encourage, correct, or teach you more about the beauty of the gospel? Did the passage convict you of sin, comfort you in suffering or confirm your salvation to you? If so, how?
