TEXT : HEBREWS 13:7-17 • MARCH 22

LIFEgroup questions

What is it that should be imitated from leadership? (1 Corinthians 11:1)

Why should new doctrines or new practice be rejected by the church?

How does the author clearly state that those who continue to participate in Old Testament style sacrifices are not a part of the church?

Why should Christians expect to be marginalized in society? Why do you think this lesson is so hard for us to remember?

Trace through the theme of "another city" in Hebrews. What is the author saying is the hope of the Christian?

In what ways can a church make it a joy for the leaders? Is this calling for blind obedience? Why, why not?

What challenged, encouraged or convicted you from this passage of Hebrews?
