

DANIEL 2:1-16 ~ October 4, 2020

Compare/Contrast this situation to Genesis 41.

Why do you think Nebuchadnezzar would make such an unreasonable demand?

What other "impossible situations" can you think of from Scripture? How were they resolved?

Daniel appears to hear the word about Nebuchadnezzar's dream later than others. What might this suggest?

How is man's depravity displayed in this passage?

Consider the whole nation of Israel and the promises of God. What attributes of God are going to be displayed as He delivers Daniel?

How can this passage give us gospel hope?
