

Read through Matthew 5:1-13. How do these show a contrast to walking, standing and sitting in the ways of the wicked, sinner and scoffer?

What words do you think best describe how most people feel about the word “law?” How surprising is it to see the word “delight” as a response?

What should the law, properly read, produce? (Galatians 3:19-29)

What does it mean to be a tree by streams of water? (Jeremiah 17:5-10)

If we're honest about ourselves, in what way, should Psalm 1 feel like a song of judgment?

How does this passage coincide with the curse listed in Genesis 3?

What longing should this Psalm create in us?

How can you and I walk as the “blessed man?”
