

What happens to a person who reads something like Psalm 1 and simply sees it as a call to increase their willpower and become a better person?

For the person who desires to please God by their own obedience, how much of the law does God hold them accountable to?

List the Old Testament passages that are listed in this paragraph. How do they spell out our approach to the Law?

Why would Jesus, who did no wrong, be cursed? (Isaiah 53)

Read all of Galatians 3. How does the life of Abraham make it obvious that salvation has always been by faith, and not by obedience to the Law?

How is gentile salvation a fulfillment of the promise made to Abraham?

How can you and I point people to the cross this Christmas?