

1 CORINTHIANS

1 Corinthians 3:10-15

November 7, 2021

Jesus as a foundation is something Isaiah 28 declares. How has Paul already borrowed from Isaiah 28 to make a point about Jesus?

What kind of effect can fire have on materials?

What sets some works apart as being like gold, silver, precious stones or like wood, hay or straw?

How does this passage make it clear this is the not the same judgement which nonbelievers face?

What would you say to the person who says to you, "I know I'm a Christian, so who cares how I live? It's like I could go to hell."?

What are some "worldly" ways you could pursue a different foundation? What are some ways that a Christian could look righteous, but still be building on the wrong kind of foundation?

Want to read and study more? This week, we're in Psalm 120 for liturgy. Take a look and write some reflections.

Questions? Text 937.404.1207