

1 CORINTHIANS

1 Corinthians 5:9-13

January 23, 2022

What is Paul's reason for not disassociating with everyone who is sexually immoral? Why does this seem to be an impossible goal to him?

Why do you think we can be tempted to tolerate sin more from those in the church than from those in the world?

How are people tempted to address the decay of society around the church? What seems to be Paul's attitude toward it?

What does it mean for someone to bear the name "brother?" Why is this name so significant?

How can the idea of the church judging one another sound terrifying? How could it be God glorifying?

How can this passage lead us to rejoice more in the gospel?

Want to read and study more? This week, we're in Psalm 127 for liturgy. Take a look and write some reflections.
