

1 CORINTHIANS

1 Corinthians 6:12-20

February 20, 2022

"All things are lawful for me" appears to be a Corinthian slogan. Knowing what you know about Corinth, how do you think the phrase was typically understood? Can you think of any similar slogans in our culture?

Same questions as above, but with the phrase "Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food:"

In what ways is the bond of sexual intimacy an illustration of the bond between a believer and Christ?

What does Paul mean by "the sexually immoral person sins against his own body?"

Why would it be more tempting to sin if we overly separate body and soul in our definition of what it is to be human?

How do you find gospel encouragement in this passage?

Want to read and study more? This week, we're in Psalm 131 for liturgy. Take a look and write some reflections.
